

A Mothers Day Celebration to Benefit Texas Advocacy Project

Join us for Ian McLagan & the Bump Band's Mother's Day Celebration benefiting the Kim McLagan Memorial Fund with Texas Advocacy Project

Hosted by the world famous Antone's on Saturday, May 12 at 8:00pm.

The May 12th benefit will feature live music from the legendary Ian McLagan & the Bump Band, Bill Carter and The Blame all-star band featuring Charlie Sexton, Brothers and Sisters, and a very special guest you won't want to miss!

The Bump Band welcomes Texas Advocacy Project in hosting a benefit and silent auction to mark the occasion. All proceeds from Ian McLagan & the Bump Band's official merchandise will be donated to the fund. Celebrate and honor your mother for the healthy love she gave you by making a donation to Texas Advocacy Project in memory of Kim McLagan. Kim was a dedicated volunteer and supporter of the Project, and your donation can help her memory live on.

Texas Advocacy Project (formerly Women's Advocacy Project) provides free legal services for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault across the State of Texas. Access to legal service is the only social service shown to actually decrease the incidence of domestic violence. The continued health and strength of the Project ensures that no domestic violence victim in Texas will have to face it without legal representation.

Project Staffer Honored for Commitment to Domestic Violence Survivors

One of our very own dedicated senior staffers was recently honored with the Ellen Halbert Award for Victims' Rights by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. D'an Anders was recognized in a ceremony this week, attended by Texas First Lady Anita Perry. The award was given for outstanding achievement in service to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. D'an provides technical advocacy and support to victims throughout Texas. The ceremony was attended by victims, fellow advocates, law enforcement and government representatives. The Project staff and Board of Directors would like to join the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in saluting D'an Anders for her commitment and tireless work in pursuit of ending domestic violence in Texas.
