Texas Advocacy Project Announces New Board Members

FEBRUARY 18, 2026 – Texas Advocacy Project (TAP) is proud to announce the appointment of new members to its Board of Directors. These leaders bring a wealth of experience and expertise that will bolster TAP’s work to end dating and domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, stalking, and human trafficking in Texas by empowering survivors through free legal services, access to the justice system, and advancing prevention through public outreach and education.

The incoming board members represent a diverse array of professional backgrounds and geographic regions, further strengthening TAP’s mission.

- Jenna Jackson – CEO of P+R Creative Group & Producer at 48 Hours CBS News/Paramount
- Adam Shaw – Senior Leader for Accenture’s Infrastructure & Capital Projects
- Amir Tabei – Chief Information Officer at Communities Foundation of Texas
- Alison D. Wilhite – Family Law Attorney at Fullenweider Wilhite

In addition to the new 2026 board members, we had six board members join mid-2025.

- Riley Hawkins – Agentic AI Global Strategy Lead at Workday
- Alex Martin – Partner at Cantilo & Bennett, LLP
- Diana Mehochko – Retired - NCR Payment Solutions
- Brian Prewitt – Partner at Jackson Walker LLP
- Steph Wagner – National Director of Women & Wealth at Northern Trust
- Whitney Whitmire – Partner at Whitmire & Munoz, LLC

As TAP welcomes new members, they also extend heartfelt gratitude to the outgoing board members whose dedication has significantly advanced the organization’s impact. TAP thanks the following members for their outstanding service and commitment and whose leadership and contributions have left a lasting legacy: Jon Andrews, Sherrill Morales, and Terry Weber.

About Texas Advocacy Project: Since its beginning in 1982 as a legal hotline, Texas Advocacy Project (TAP) has evolved into an expert on legal and social issues affecting survivors of power-based abuse. TAP strives to end dating and domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, stalking, and human trafficking in Texas. TAP empowers survivors through free legal and social services and access to the justice system, and advances prevention through public outreach and education. Our vision is that all Texans live free from abuse. In 2025, TAP provided legal and social services in 6,239 cases, serving 14,042 Texans.
